

From our school's Media Specialist, Mrs. Alday:

Your child is invited to participate in a school Reading Contest through Beanstack!

Access Beanstack through OCPS Launch. The birthdate configuration should be entered as MMDDYY. You can also sign up for summer reading on Beanstack at the public library at www.ocls.info and select NLPCS so the information you enter in OCPS will be shared with the public library and enter students in their summer reading contest too.

As your student reads this summer, you can log into Beanstack to chart their minutes and unlock badges. (It's like FitBit but for reading, where you are logging reading minutes, instead of steps) Top schools and students will receive prizes and recognition through Orange County Public Library in September!
